

Worker Type - Fixed Term	Employment is for a stated period of time greater than six months and generally in no more than 3-year increments. Click this link to see the specific benefits that can be elected: http://wdrs.fnal.gov/employ/ScheduleofBenefits.pdf
On-Call Worker (Fixed Term)	On-call employees are a group of support personnel who work on an 'as needed' basis. This group consists of professionals, retirees and others who wish to work temporary assignments. There are no guaranteed number of hours an On-call employee will work. Assignments are dependent upon Laboratory needs and the employee's ability to fill the assignments. On-call employees must work less than 1,000 hours a year. Click this link to see the specific benefits that can be elected: http://wdrs.fnal.gov/employ/ScheduleofBenefits.pdf
Regular	Employment for an indefinite period of employment. Click this link to see the specific benefits that can be elected: http://wdrs.fnal.gov/employ/ScheduleofBenefits.pdf
Seasonal (Fixed Term)	Summer and holiday temporary assignments, intended for students. Click this link to see the specific benefits that can be elected: http://wdrs.fnal.gov/employ/ScheduleofBenefits.pdf
Temporary Employee (Fixed Term)	Individual who works either short- or long-term assignments (generally not to exceed six months) with an employer without being treated as a permanent employee; normally utilized to meet seasonal or other demands that supervisory organizations do not have internal resources to meet. Click this link to see the specific benefits that can be elected: http://wdrs.fnal.gov/employ/ScheduleofBenefits.pdf